NOTICE OF CLAIM

- The information provided here does not constitute legal advice. You should consult a legal professional at your own cost if you require legal assistance.
- With very limited exceptions, no lawsuit for money damages may be brought against the City or its employees unless a Notice of Claim is filed with the Corporation Counsel. The Notice of Claim acts as a prerequisite for filing a lawsuit against the City, seeking recovery for damages related to injuries to persons or property. Please refer to the following legal provisions: Honolulu Revised Charter of the City and County of Honolulu (Section 13-111) and Hawai'i Revised Statutes (Section 46-72). Hawai'i law requires any lawsuit based on the incident described in your claim to be filed within two years from the date of that incident. Submitting your claim does not extend this two-year statute of limitations for filing a lawsuit. Even if your claim is denied or not acted upon, the two-year period remains unchanged.
- Filing a Notice of Claim does not automatically guarantee compensation or investigation. The Corporation Counsel has the discretion to investigate your claim. If deemed appropriate, you may receive compensation based on the investigation results.
- This claim will not be processed unless filled in completely. Please be as detailed and thorough as possible - use additional paper for descriptions if necessary. Complete in ink.
- Submit claim form with any and all supporting documentation.
  - Photos – area of occurrence, damages, injuries, etc.
  - Invoices – Damages: receipts or at least two estimates for repair; Injuries: medical reports and/ or bills
  - Copy of registration and insurance card (vehicle damage)
  - Police report number (if any)
