

START

All the trash has created quite a maze. Can you help Apoha find his way?

6

7

END

Help the little rain drop decide whether to flow through the storm drain and to the ocean or stay in the yard to help the garden grow.

When it rains, water flows from rooftops, lawns and driveways, to streets, gutters, catch basins, storm sewer pipes, and out to our streams and ocean. There are simple things, called LIDs, that can be put in your yard to stop or slow rain water from running off, which decreases pollution to our streams and ocean.