

SAVE THE DATE

August 09-10, 2016

Green Infrastructure for Stormwater Management SUMMIT

Café Julia
1040 Richards Street | Honolulu, HI

This event is supported by an award from the National Sea Grant Office received by the University of Hawai'i Sea Grant College Program.

Questions? Contact Matthew Gonser, Hawai'i Sea Grant, gonserm@hawaii.edu

Confirmed Speakers

Geoff Anderson, President & CEO,
Smart Growth America

Todd Cullison, Executive Director,
Hui o Ko'olaupoko

Hye Yeong Kwon, MBA, Executive Director,
Center for Watershed Protection

Shaun O'Rourke, Green Infrastructure Director,
Trust for Public Land

Randall Wakumoto, P.E., Branch Chief,
Stormwater Division, Department of Facilities Maintenance, City and County of Honolulu

Michelle West, P.E., Project Manager-Water Resources Engineer, Horsley Witten Group

Topics to be Covered

Tools to Pay: Alternative Funding Mechanisms and Partnerships for Financing, Designing, Constructing, Operating & Maintaining

Methodologies for Municipal Scale Planning and Identifying Opportunities for Retrofits and New Projects

Into the Weeds: Soils, Vegetation, and Details

Local Built Projects, Expertise, and Highlights

And More!

CE Credits to be Pursued

Full Program and Registration details to come!

This event is being collaboratively organized by

